

Portfolio Extract - English Content

Use Case example

“With Insense, Wholesome Goods have been able to test and scale with different types of creators and ad creatives. In addition, licensed ads were perfect for them to test audience customization in numerous ways to see what works best. For example, they tested using their own audience, a mix of their own audience and the creator's audience, and just the creator's audience.”

Click to Link

Copywriting example

In case you're on a budget, Flixier also lets you crop videos free of charge! Our free video crop app offers the same features as our paid one, allowing you to crop your videos and adjust the Aspect Ratio in minutes without having to spend any money!”

Click to Link

flixier

Templates Blog Login Get Started

Press Release example

Spotzer Digital is pleased to announce that we have developed and launched the new SIINDA website. SIINDA is the leading European non-profit organization for on-demand industry sectors of which Spotzer Digital is a proud sponsor. It is the leading European-based non-profit association bringing together agencies, brands, media and technology companies in the local search, digital advertising, media, mobile and “on demand” industry sectors. [...]”

Click to Link

Article 1 example

“Exciting battles, medieval knights, epic songs and much more. On this route you will explore the same path travelled by the legendary Cid, mythical character of the Reconquest, only you will probably be comfortable in your motorhome, enjoying the music and not getting lost with the help of a navigation system.

Explore the old Islamic kingdoms, the cultural and natural heritage in the old no man's land, conquer Valencia and defend the south from a beautiful campsite overlooking the sea. The starting point is Burgos and the final destination is Alicante, crossing from the north-east to the south-east of Spain and travelling through the most important places linked to the main character of the Cantar de mio Cid.”

Click to Link

Article 2 example

“Ahh... champagne! This pleasant, tingly substance that makes us laugh, brings joy and accompanies us on special occasions. And where better to try the sparkling drink than in the beautiful French region of Champagne? Explore the wine region on this route while enjoying the flexibility and comfort of a motorhome trip. The Champagne Route winds through the picturesque region, past vineyards, charming villages and historic wine cellars where you can stay overnight and enjoy the region's scenery.”

Click to Link

Article 3 example

“The pink cliffs of the Côtes d'Armor, the turquoise waters of the Finistère beaches and the beautiful bays of the Côte d'Émeraude (Emerald Coast) are just some of the reasons why it is worth discovering the region of galettes and sailor shirts. Lovers of seafood, a fresh sea breeze and charming coastal villages will quickly see why Brittany is one of the most popular regions for caravanning.

Our route starts on the south coast of Brittany and heads to the north coast, where we treat ourselves to a final detour into Normandy to the famous Mont Saint-Michel, the crème de la crème.”

Click to Link

Article 4 example

“Camino del Norte, also known as the Coastal Way, crosses the northern coast of Spain and includes the regions of the Basque Country, Cantabria, Asturias and Galicia.

It is one of the most visited Pilgrims' Routes to Santiago de Compostela, second only to the French Way, and more interesting if you're looking to relax on the beach or do water sports. In the unlikely event that you have never heard of the Camino de Santiago, it is an ancient route where pilgrims from all over the world undertake a journey to the city of Santiago de Compostela, acquiring along the way unforgettable stories, unexpected friendships and lifelong memories.”

Click to Link

